

Our family is deeply saddened to inform you that our beloved Mother passed away peacefully in her sleep yesterday morning. As many of you know, she was recovering from a terrible slip and fall accident. Despite her negative physical condition, her spirit was incredibly positive. She was optimistic about her recovery, she was upbeat and she was happy. This news came to us with complete surprise as I'm sure it does to you now as well. In the past few weeks of her recovery, we witnessed her determination, character and spirit soar to heights far beyond the depth of her physical situation. In the past few weeks of her recovery, she demonstrated just how important the "inside" is because she was absolutely radiant and beautiful despite her "outside" condition. We will cherish these final memories and ask that you join us in memorial to celebrate the life of a beautiful neighbor, friend, cousin, aunt, sister, grandmother, mom, wife, and child of God who is now with Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior:
